1. NAMES and IDENTIFICATION

- a) Preferred name of language for code element denotation:
Mongolo
- b) Autonym (self-name) for this language:
- c) Common alternate names and spellings of language, and any established abbreviations:
Meakambut [name of a former Mongolo village, also used for peoples in the wider area],
Penale [name of an area which includes the Mongolo area]
- d) Reason for preferred name:
Mongolo is the name used to refer to these peoples by residents of villages along the Arafundi River and in villages on the mountains near the Mongolo area.
- e) Name and approximate population of ethnic group or community who use this language (complete individual language currently in use):
Population: 52
- f) Preferred three letter identifier, if available:

Your suggestion will be taken into account, but the Registration Authority will determine the identifier to be proposed. The identifier is not intended to be an abbreviation for a name of the language, but to serve as a device to identify a given language uniquely. With thousands of languages, many sets of which have similar names, it is not possible to provide identifiers that resemble a language name in every case.

2. TEMPORAL DESCRIPTION and LOCATION

- a) Is this a

For individual languages, also complete:

- b) Countries where used:
Papua New Guinea
- c) Region within each country: towns, districts, states or provinces where used. Include GPS coordinates of the approximate center of the language, if possible:
The Mongolo people are a semi-nomadic people (moving every year or so) who live in the East Sepik Province of Papua New Guinea, near the border with Enga Province. They are currently believed to be living between Mambungam and Maramuni Rivers.
- d) For an ancient or historical language, give approximate time frame; for a recently extinct language, give the approximate date of the last known user's death

3. MODALITY AND LINGUISTIC AFFILIATION

- a) This language is: Signed Spoken Attested only in writings
- b) Language family, if classified; origin, if artificially constructed:
- c) Closest language linguistically. For a Macrolanguage, list the individual languages (adopted and/or proposed) to be included in its group. For signed language, note influence from other signed or spoken languages:

4. LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT AND USE

- a) What written literature, inscriptions or recordings exist in this language? Are there newspapers, radio or television broadcasts, etc.?:
None.
- b) Is this language officially recognized by any level of government? Is it used in any levels of formal education as a language of instruction (for other subjects)? Is it taught in schools?:
Unknown.
- c) Comment on factors of ethnolinguistic identity and informal domains of use:
Vitality of the Mongolo language seems questionable, because of their small population, poor health and high infant mortality.
