PRIMER NO. 5

Page 1 Sukà and his father arrived from the mountain, from second hunting trip
It was very far to the mountain. It was already dark when they arrived. There were many stars in the sky.
The moon was in the sky. Sukà saw some very good stars in the sky. He said to his father.

Page 2 What are those stars called?
His father said,
Stars of the rice. When the stars of the rice are there, we plant the rice. All the people plant rice
now. They see the stars of the rice.
The moon is very good, Father. Who made the stars and the moon? There are many stars in the sky. Who made them?

Page 3 Said Father,
God made them. Everything in the sky God made.

Asked Sukà,
Why do we see the stars and the moon at night, not in the day When there is the sun, we don't see the moon We don't see the stars Why is that?

Page 4 Said his father,

The earth and sky are made round The earth goes around the sun. If the sun is above, it is day, and is very bright. We see the sun. We do not see the moon and the stars If the sun is underneath, we see the stars and the moon We don't see the sun.

Page 5 What else did God made?

He made everything, He made all living creatures. He made the trees, the flowers, and everything that grows. And He made people also

Page 6 Everything was made by God

Said the boy,

It is good to know that I would like to know more of that Where did you learn of that?

Page 7 Said his father,

There is a book that tells us the words of God and everything He made. It tells much It is very good to read it

O good, Father, said Sukà, It would be very good to read God's book.

Page 8 They entered the house.

O Mayay, o Tifay, said Sukà, and his father O Sukà, o Father, said the girls. What did you shoot in the mountain?

Page 9 Not very much, said Father Only one small pig, one monkey, and one small bird.

Are you hungry? said Mayay

We are very hungry. Have you cooked the rice? Hurry and roast the small bird Make it taste very good.

Page 10 Yes, Father, said they.

They quickly prepared the food Soon the food was cooked, and Father and Sukà ate. They had made the bird taste very good.
