Kata Pengantar

Perasaan bangga dan gembira, karena SIL Internasional Regional Papua sedemikian keluhuran dan ketinggian kepedulian terhadap bahasa, seni dan budaya sebagai citra diri masyarakat Papua, sehingga memahami, mendalami dan memadukan dalam bentuk tulisan.

Tulisan memegang peranan yang mendasar karena, menjadi kajian informatif serta bahan peragaan yang dapat digunakan untuk penyuluhan dan bimbingan sosial sebagai gerak dasar usaha kesejahteraan sosial. Penyuluhan dan bimbingan sosial membutuhkan sarana-sarana kerja dan sarana pendekatan, yang merupakan petunjuk-petunjuk sederhana praktis.

SIL dengan segala kesulitan telah menyusun buku yang memuat bahan untuk keaksaraan, kesehatan dan kesejahteraan sosial.

Pada kesempatan yang berbahagia ini, saya atas nama rakyat Papua, maupun pemerintah Papua menyampaikan penghargaan dan terima kasih yang setinggi-tingginya semoga Allah selalu melindungi saudara dalam mewujudkan cinta kasih kepada rakyatku yang berada dalam kesederhanaan.

Markus was very sad. They had just buried his father. His father had been sick for many years. This is the story of what happened to Markus' father.

His father's sickness seemed to start about 10 years ago. He had a cough that would not go away. At first the health worker thought it was caused by an infection and gave him some medicine which helped him, but soon he was coughing again.

Mhau masno snyi o, tahun bo fetu tna hayah reto samyoh miwer. Soh ait yayo yafos to, yafos mfrok mamo moof kaket fee ye. Wore wo mti tna wasi maun mam amah to, hayah reto mrok msai renti. Markus wase bo bawya ro misti yaja kiyam fetu.

As time went on his coughing grew worse. Sometimes he could not breathe very well and a whistling (wheezing) sound could be heard when he breathed. It was especially bad at night when there was smoke from the fire in the house. Markus wondered why his father had this sickness.

Raa sme ro mhau mam remo rait reto

All the men in the village liked to smoke cigarettes. They thought that this was an important and good thing for a man to do. Sometimes some of the women would smoke too. Markus knew that in some places almost all of the women and the men smoked.

Tii Markus ysya yaja mbewok ngksoh

Tibyo ja yiya tabak uu yoyo fee.

Markus and his father used to smoke a lot, because it made them feel less nervous and they liked to do it, but as his father grew sicker and weaker he could not smoke as much.

"Ae, bo refo mabo tu oh."

One day a man came to their village from the health department. He gathered all the men together. He told them that doctors had examined lots of people who smoked. They discovered that people who smoked were not healthy. People who smoked would cough and would have difficulty breathing. They would be sick, like Markus' father had been sick. This was hard to believe, but as Markus thought about it and looked around at his friends, he realized it was true. Many of his friends were coughing too just like his father had done before he died.

Markus ynaut yawe tahun ro wia to, yaja kiyam: Yetsu rowe tna yamo fee ye.
Yait boit kaket fee ye. Tibyo yetsu mroh toni. Hayah mrok msai renti tna soh hayah to hayah nsrioh mees ye.

Markus remembered that after several months of coughing and having difficulty breathing, his father had gotten so weak he could not walk around. He was losing weight and did not want to eat anymore. His cough was very bad and sometimes he would cough up blood.

Yaja kiyam samyoh tna yme mtu mantri yama. Mantri yama ymat sas yaja tna yawe k'raa wana yawe ana maja kiyam kangker mam yaatmato. Mantri yawe tabak ro yiya reto to, mno re ait kiyam to. Tna ynaut yawe kbe ait yhau kait fee. Kbe yhai fooh sai.

The health worker came to see him and after he talked to him and examined him, he told his family that their father had cancer in his lungs. He said this cancer was caused by smoking and that probably he would die soon because of this disease.

Mantri yawe wasi ro tabak mrat yaatmato tibyo mrok mkair. Tna mno re kbe yaja yhai.

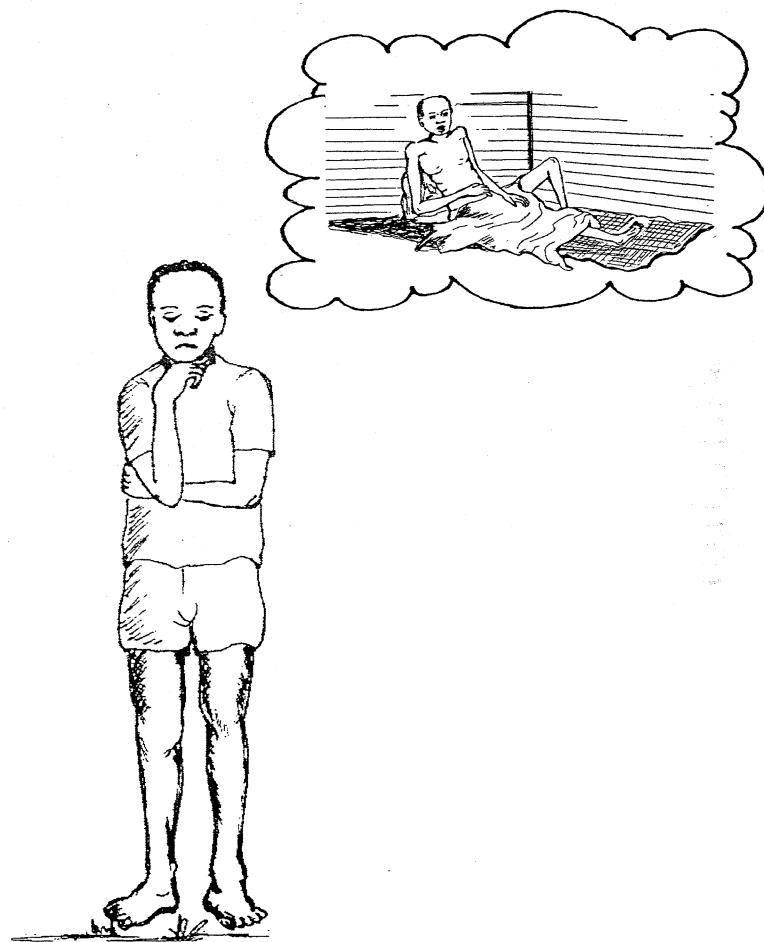

Snyi baro firwas tna Markus yaja yrok hooh msai renti. Ait ymat he yaja yham toni tna waa. Tna fo Markus yaja yhai. Bo reto mno Markus yrok sraujin toni. Tibyo yawe ait waa bo meen yafa bo mfi yaja bo feto ye.

The health worker explained that the smoke coats the inside of the lungs and soon people cannot breathe well and will die.

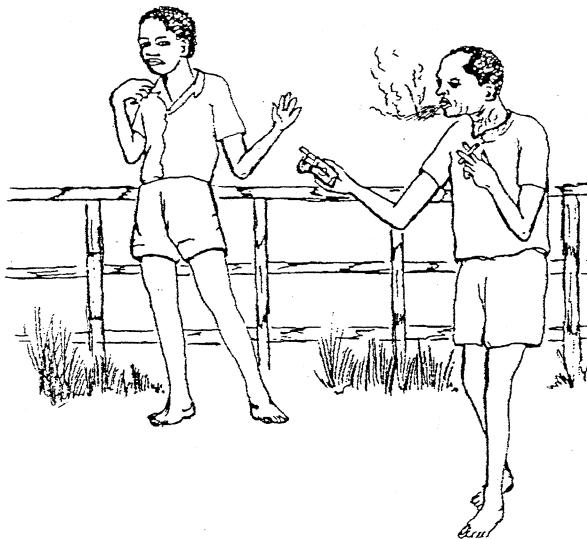

Finally after a few more months, Markus' father was unable to breathe. He had a terrified look on his face and then he died. It was very sad and Markus did not want to die like that.

Markus ynaut bo weto, tna yawe ait bitsre tabak yiya ye.

Markus decided to try to stop smoking.

*Yhau tabak yiya to, bo ro mnan-nan fee.
Soh raa moo tabak mee k'ait to, ait hawe bo yoo
ye. Tna soh ait yamo't kios to, yoo tabak fee ye.
Ait yasmasu tna srau oot-oot yawe ye yiya tabak
uu sai, menohe mfe: Ait beroh yuut bait sai, yawe bitsre tabak yiya bait oh.*

It was not easy, but he refused cigarettes that were offered to him. Whenever Markus went to the shop he would not buy any cigarettes. He felt nervous and sweaty sometimes but he wanted to persevere. He really wanted to stop smoking. He stopped smoking and didn't start smoking again.

Markus yfain au ngksoh toni. Markus ybo pitis to, ye yoo tabak uu fee oh. Ana mnaut mawe mbo pitis to, moo bo ro ati mfi boit o ratan bo feto, mkah bo ana beta mhaf mse su ye.

Markus' wife was happy about this because now Markus was not spending all his money on cigarettes. They used this money for buying things that were more important for their family.

Markus yitsre tabak ro yiya. Tinyi rau to, ait tetet tna yhai tabak yhai.

Hari Minggu baro mfirwas tna Markus yhaf miyo yawe ye yiya uu fee. Ait yhar yawe tabak kro misoh mno bo ro ait yasmasu to fee. Menohe tabak sikowah ait yato rait renti.

Mfo refo to ait yari yhaf ro mham to marak oh. Tna ait yasoh mkair uu fee tna sohmam bo to, yari mafah uu ye oh.

After a few weeks Markus found that he was less nervous and shaky than when he first quit smoking. He realized that maybe the cigarettes had not helped calm him after all, but instead they had made him more nervous.

Now his stomach felt better and he did not have the burning feeling like he had had before. He could taste his food better and his mouth did not feel fuzzy and dirty all the time.

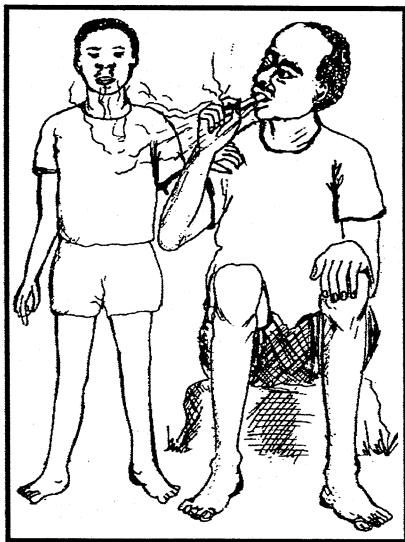

Markus ngksoh toni. Tna ykyas
k'yafoh na sor ye, yawe ana miya tabak

Markus was pleased. He told his friends about the good changes in his body since he quit smoking, and wanted to encourage other people to stop smoking. He wanted to help them.

His friend, Lukas, smoked a lot especially inside his house. He had two children and they were always sick. They had coughs and runny noses all the time. Lukas didn't know that his smoking affected his children, but it did. After talking to Markus, Lukas stopped smoking, and when he did, he felt better and so did his children. They did not cough and have runny noses as often as before and they didn't have to take as much medicine.

Lukas' wife used to smoke too. When she was pregnant with her last child she visited the health worker. He saw her smoking and told her smoking was harmful for her and the baby. The baby was not growing inside her as fast as it should and he said that smoking was keeping the baby small. When she realized her smoking was harming the baby she stopped and never started again.

It was not easy for Markus and Lukas to stop smoking. Many times they wanted to start again. But they encouraged each other and didn't smoke even one cigarette. They tried not to think about smoking and kept busy with other activities. After a long time they didn't want to smoke anymore.

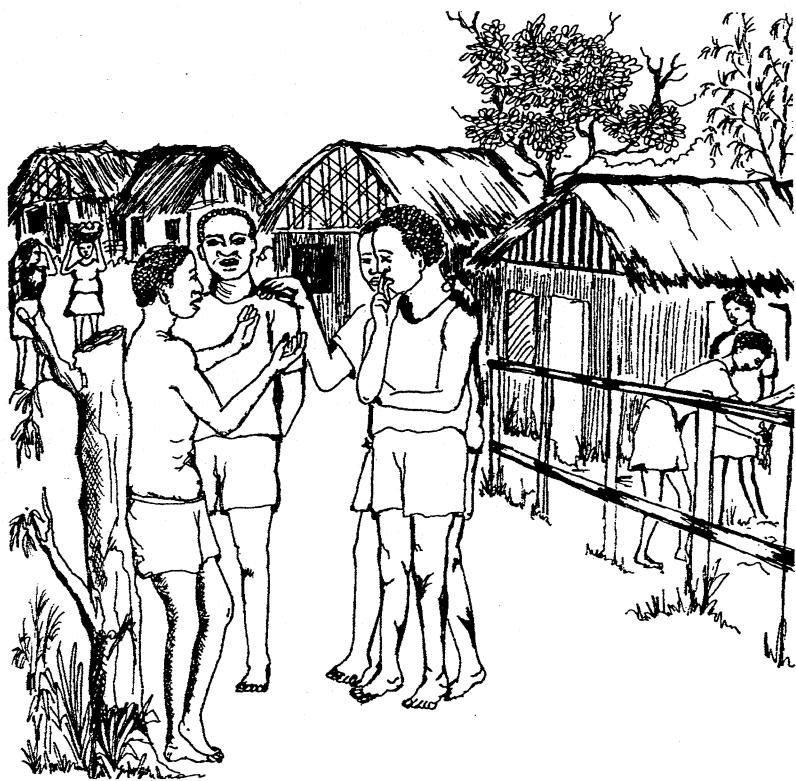

Tna Markus safo ykyas k'raa taro yawe ana micre tabak miya ye. Raa mabo baro mari bo ro ait yawe. Mfo refo ana mhar oh mawe miya tabak to, kbe mno raa kiyam. Tna wasi ro tabak kbe mno ku wana kiyam ye.

Markus kept trying to help other people to stop smoking and a few listened to him. They now knew that smoking was not good for their health and that it was making them and their children sick.

All of the people in the village who stopped smoking were healthier. They did not get sick as often as before, and they noticed that they could work harder, and walk faster and farther without getting tired so quickly. They noticed their children were healthier. They were glad they had decided to stop smoking.

MEROKOK BERBAHAYA BAGI KESEHATAN

- Hal 1 Markus sangat sedih. Mereka baru saja mengubur ayahnya. Ayahnya telah sakit selama beberapa tahun. Cerita yang berikut mengisahkan tentang apa yang terjadi pada diri ayah Markus.
- Hal 2 Penyakit ayahnya berawal kira-kira sepuluh tahun yang lalu. Ayahnya menderita batuk yang tidak sembuh-sembuh. Pada awalnya mantri mengira bahwa batuknya disebabkan oleh infeksi dan memberinya obat, tetapi tidak lama kemudian ayahnya mulai batuk lagi. Batuknya semakin parah. Kadang-kadang dia tidak dapat bernafas dengan baik dan nafasnya tersengal-sengal. Pada malam hari batuknya lebih parah apabila ada asap dari api dalam rumah. Markus ingin tahu mengapa ayahnya menderita penyakit ini.
- Hal 4 Semua pria di kampung senang merokok. Mereka berpikir bahwa merokok adalah sesuatu yang penting dan baik bagi seorang pria. Kadang-kadang ada juga wanita yang merokok. Markus tahu bahwa di beberapa tempat hampir semua wanita dan pria merokok.
- Hal 5 Markus dan ayahnya dulu biasanya banyak merokok karena dengan merokok mereka merasa tenang. Mereka senang merokok, tetapi karena ayahnya semakin lama semakin sakit dan lemah dia tidak dapat merokok banyak seperti dahulu
- Hal 6 Pada suatu hari seorang petugas dari Departemen Kesehatan mengunjungi kampung mereka. Dia mengumpul semua kaum pria. Dia memberitahukan mereka bahwa para dokter telah memeriksa jumlah besar perokok. Hasil pemeriksaan mereka menunjukkan bahwa para perokok adalah orang yang tidak sehat. Hal ini sulit dipercaya, tetapi Markus mulai berfikir tentang hal ini dan waktu melihat teman-temannya sekelilingnya dia sadar bahwa hal ini benar karena banyak dari teman-temannya juga batuk seperti ayahnya sebelum meninggal.

Hal 8 Markus ingat bahwa selama beberapa bulan ayahnya batuk-batuk dan nafasnya tersengal-sengal dan akhirnya dia bertambah lemah dan tidak dapat berjalan. Berat badannya turun dan dia tidak ingin makan. Batuknya sangat parah dan kadang-kadang batuknya ada darah. Mantri datang untuk memeriksa ayah Markus dan kemudian memberitahukan keluarganya bahwa ayah mereka menderita kanker paru-paru. Dia mengatakan bahwa kanker ini disebabkan oleh rokok dan kemungkinan dia akan meninggal dalam waktu dekat karena penyakit ini.

- Hal 10 Mantri menjelaskan hal ini terjadi oleh karena asap menyebabkan adanya lapisan pada bagian dalam paru-paru dan tidak lama kemudian mereka yang menderita gejala-gejala seperti ini tidak dapat bernafas dengan baik dan akan meninggal. Setelah beberapa bulan ayah Markus tidak dapat bernafas. Wajahnya ketakutan, kemudian dia meninggal. Kejadian ini sangat menyedihkan dan Markus tidak ingin meninggal seperti itu.
- Hal 11 Markus putuskan untuk mencoba berhenti merokok.
- Hal 12 Hal ini tidak mudah, tetapi Markus menolak rokok jika ditawarkannya, dan menolak menanam tembakau dekat rumahnya. Apabila ke kios, dia tidak membeli rokok. Dia merasa gelisah dan kadang-kadang berkeringat tetapi dia bertahan dan dia betul-betul ingin berhenti merokok. Dia berhenti merokok dan tidak merokok lagi.
- Hal 13 Isterinya senang karena Markus tidak menghabiskan uangnya untuk membeli rokok. Mereka menggunakan uang itu untuk membeli hal-hal lain yang penting dan lebih bermanfaat bagi keluarga mereka.
- Hal 14 Setelah beberapa minggu, Markus merasa tidak gelisah atau gemetar seperti pada waktu dia baru berhenti merokok. Dia menyadari bahwa mungkin rokok tidak membantu menenangkan dirinya, tetapi justru membuatnya merasa lebih gelisah. Sekarang perutnya terasa lebih baik dan tidak ada rasa sakit lagi seperti dulu. Dia dapat merasa makanan dan mulutnya tidak terasa aneh dan kotor.

- Hal 15 Markus senang. Dia memberitahukan teman-temannya tentang perubahan yang terjadi dalam tubuhnya sejak dia berhenti merokok, dan dia mau mengajak orang lain agar mereka berhenti merokok. Dia ingin membantu mereka.
- 16-17 Temannya yang bernama Lukas juga banyak merokok. Khusunya di dalam rumahnya. Kedua anaknya sering sakit. Mereka selalu batuk dan beringus. Lukas tidak tahu kalau kebiasaan merokoknya mempengaruhi kesehatan anak-anaknya. Setelah berbicara dengan markus, Lukas berhenti merokok dan pada waktu dia berhenti dia merasa lebih sehat dan anak-anaknya juga demikian.. Mereka tidak sering batuk-batuk atau beringus seperti dulu. Mereka tidak perlu lagi meminum banyak obat.
- Tidak Baik
- Baik
- Hal 18 Istrinya Lukas dulu merokok juga. Pada waktu dia sedang mengandung anaknya yang bungsu dia periksa ke mantri. Mantri melihat dia merokok dan berkata kepadanya bahwa rokok itu berbahaya bagi kesehatan ibu dan bayi. Bayi dalam kandungannya tidak bertumbuh seperti normal. Mantri mengatakan bahwa merokok mengakibatkan bayinya tetap kecil. Istri Lukas menyadari bahwa merokok itu berbahaya bagi bayinya. Dia berhenti merokok dan tidak merokok lagi.
- Hal 19 Lukas juga senang bahwa isterinya telah berhenti merokok dan dia melihat sekarang isterinya kelihatan lebih sehat. Lukas senang ketika isterinya memberitahukan apa yang telah dikatakan mantri kepadanya mengenai bahaya rokok bagi bayi mereka. Dia senang pada waktu Lukas juga berhenti merokok.
- Hal 20-21 Tidak mudah bagi Markus dan Lukas untuk berhenti merokok. Banyak kali mereka ingin mulai merokok lagi. Tetapi, mereka saling mengingatkan dan saling mendorong dan tidak merokok sebatangpun. Mereka mencoba untuk tidak berfikir tentang merokok. Sesudah waktu yang lama, mereka tidak ingin merokok lagi. Markus mencoba menolong orang lain agar mereka dapat berhenti merokok, tetapi hanya beberapa orang yang menghiraukannya. Sekarang mereka tahu bahwa merokok itu tidak baik bagi kesehatan mereka, dan membuat mereka sakit di dalam. Mereka belajar bahwa untuk berhenti merokok seseorang harus mampu.

Hal 22-23 Semua orang di kampung mereka yang telah berhenti merokok lebih sehat, dan mereka tidak lagi sering sakit seperti dulu, mereka dapat bekerja dengan lebih keras, berjalan dengan lebih cepat dan lebih jauh dan tidak cepat capek. Mereka melihat bahwa anak-anak mereka kelihatan lebih sehat. Mereka senang karena mereka telah berhenti merokok.
