This list has been compared with the list taken on 17 February 1973 in Bos-olan, Butant. The items checked on this list are the ones that differ from the 1973 list, and the 1973 equivalents are written in. Again, in these cases both cannot be correct, but there is the possibility that both may be incorrect. (Cont. below *)

* Notes concerning this list:

1. t has been written in numerous instances where the actual phone is [ʔ], the "Kalinga l" as described for Guinaang. Cf my 1958 paper. All instances are circled with a question mark, as ⊕.
2. The transcription of [ʃ], which I believe is /d/ phonemically, is consistent.
3. The use of [ʃ] (e.g. 16, <sup>36</sup>) and [b] (e.g. 8, 9), however, causes me to wonder. Both, I am sure, are allophones of /b/, but I am not so sure about the accuracy of these two symbols for the actual phones.
