About a Dream #1 (DRM-1)

narrative

A. About a Dream #1 (DRM-1)

Durga describes a dream he had in which he and various of his relations were attacked on their way to the market. ${ }^{1}$ The tide is turned against the bandits when their axes are snatched from them and they are killed. As we were in Nepal when Durga had this dream he was quite concerned for his family as a result.

A. 1 Free Translation of Text

1. About a dream.
2. I dreamed on Thursday night.
3. They came like this. Tetergurin and Khuti Mama and Mohlin Bubu, (and) Bakaondin Bubu came.
4. And after that they and I went to the market. There was too much water on the way. We went very slowly.
5. There was a bandit on the way.
6. Bakaondin Bubu was behind us. The bandit cut her a little with an axe.
7. Later we are going.
8. There were another three bandits at another place. Again they cut Bakaondin Bubu's body. And they are snatching her jewellery.
9. Then she called to us.
10. Then we came and Bakaondin Bubu and I killed one bandit with his axe and Mohlin Bubu and Khuti Mama killed another bandit with his axe that they (looters) had kept with them to kill us. We cut their heads off from their bodies and killed them.
11. That's all.
12. And with this I woke up.
